ECOA Notice: The federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act and comparable provisions of state law prohibit creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age, (provided the applicants has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); or because all or part of the applicant’s income derives from any public assistance program. The federal law also prohibits discrimination because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is: FDIC, Consumer Response Center, 1100 Walnut St, Box #11, Kansas City, MO 64106

Dodd-Frank Appraisal Disclosure: As a normal part of the underwriting process, we may order an appraisal to determine the property’s value. As with most other closing costs you, the borrower, will be charged for the cost of the appraisal. You have a right to receive a free copy of your appraisal if your loan will be secured by a first lien, on a 1 to 4 family dwelling, and as such, we will promptly give you a copy of any appraisal, even if your loan does not close. You can pay for an additional appraisal for your own use at your own cost.

Notice Regarding USA PATRIOT ACT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.
